Which service will we provide you with?

You will not receive advice or a recommendation from us. We will provide you with information about the policy and you will need to make your own choice about how to proceed.

Your right to cancel your policy and your 'cooling off' period

You have the following rights to cancel any policy you buy through us:

- You have a cancellation right which is set out in the policy document.
- You are also entitled to a 'cooling off' period, which ends 14 days after you receive your policy documents.

You can cancel at any time by contacting us.

What you will be charged if you cancel your insurance

1) Prior to the commencement date of your policy.

If you cancel your policy prior to this date a full refund of any monies paid will be provided.

2) Within the 'cooling off' period

If you cancel your policy, before the end of the 'cooling off' period, you will be charged by the insurer for the service they have provided up to the point of cancellation. We will also make a cancellation charge of £25.

3) After the 'cooling off' period

In some circumstances a refund may not be possible after your cooling off period e.g. if you have made a claim. Your policy wording will set out your insurer's terms in this respect and any applicable cancellation charges made by your insurer. We will also make a cancellation charge of £25. Our new policy inception or policy renewal service charge made for arranging your policy will not be refunded.

Whenever your policy is cancelled, if we have given you a discount off your premium at inception this will be deducted on a pro rata basis from any refund due to you on cancellation. Where a cancellation or other transaction results in a premium refund being due to you, that refund will be reduced by any service charge and any other sums you owe in respect of the policy.

Cancellation of Riders Legal Protection, Excess Insurance, Helmets & Leathers Cover and Breakdown Cover

If you cancel your Motorbike insurance policy, any associated Riders Legal Protection, Excess Insurance, Helmets & Leathers Cover or Breakdown Cover policy you purchased will also be cancelled. If this occurs within the 'cooling off' period a full refund of the cost of the Riders Legal Protection, Excess Insurance, Helmets & Leathers Cover or Breakdown Cover policy will be provided. However, if this occurs after the 'cooling off' period no refund will be given.

Payment of premium using Third Party instalment facilities

This paragraph applies if (a) you have entered into a credit agreement with a third party lender (the 'Lender') under which the Lender has provided you with credit to finance the payment of premiums, fees or other sums payable by you under an insurance policy which we have arranged for you; and (b) we have entered into arrangements with the Lender under which the Lender has the right to recover from us any money which you fail to pay to the Lender under the credit agreement. Where this paragraph applies, you agree:

- 1) to pay promptly the instalments and other money which you are liable to pay to the Lender under the credit agreement;
- 2) to pay promptly all the premiums and other money which you are liable to pay to the insurer under the insurance policy (including any money payable under the policy which is not covered by the drawings you make under the credit agreement and any money which becomes payable under the policy following the cancellation or termination of the credit agreement); and
- 3) to indemnify us in full against any money which, under the arrangements between us and the Lender, we have paid, or are liable to pay, to the lender following a failure by you to pay any money you owe to the Lender under the credit agreement.

Ways to Pay

If you chose to pay by instalments, Swinton Insurance acts as a credit broker and we only offer finance through a third-party lender Close Brothers Limited trading as Close Brothers Premium Finance. Your personal information and bank details will be passed to them.

If you decide to pay by Direct Debit you will need to sign a Consumer Credit Agreement with Close Brothers Premium Finance which will sets out the terms and conditions you will be agreeing to; you will need to read this carefully as it is a legally binding document. You will also receive two separate documents (called the SECCI and Adequate Explanations) which summarise the key terms of the credit agreement.

We do not accept payments by credit/debit cards which have been issued from outside the UK.

Where you are due a refund from us we will endeavour to pay this back to you via the same method by which you paid.

If we refund you via cheque and this cheque remains uncashed you will have six years to claim this money under your statutory rights.

Important: Our right to cancel your insurance

If you choose to pay by Direct Debit Close Brothers Premium Finance will provide you with a Consumer Credit Agreement to sign. You are reminded that it is a term of the agreement that you authorise us to instruct the insurers to cancel your insurance if any Direct Debit or instalment payment, or any other amount due under those agreements, is in arrears and not paid on time. Should any payments be reclaimed by your bank under the Direct Debit Guarantee, the full balance of premium and associated charges will fall due immediately. If this payment is not made you authorise us to instruct the insurers to cancel your policy.

If any credit or debit card payments used to pay for your policy are reclaimed by the card holders bank the full balance of the premium and associated charges will fall due immediately. If this payment is not made you authorise us to instruct the insurers to cancel your policy.

If you have been requested to do so, please provide us with your No Claims Bonus within 28 days from the start of your policy. You'll get this from your previous insurer. You can email a copy to us at documents@swinton.co.uk.
