

Swinton Insurance Private Car Summary

Your Classic Cover

This document is a Policy Summary. That means it doesn't contain the full terms and conditions of your car insurance contract – just a useful overview. You'll find full details inside your Car Insurance Policy Booklet.

Your Swinton Car Insurance policy is the contract between you and the insurers. It includes the policy booklet, statement of fact, the schedule, the certificate of insurance and any endorsements we send to you.

Please make sure you read everything carefully to make sure you have bought the right car insurance for you.

What are the significant or unusual exclusions or limitations of my Car insurance?

Your policy does not cover you in some situations. Please refer to each section in your policy booklet which contains exclusions applicable to those section and also to the General Exclusions. If your schedule shows Section 13 is covered, please also refer to the exclusions in that section.

The most significant or unusual exclusions in the policy are outlined below.

Your policy excludes or limits the following:

All sections

- The first part of any claim – this is known as the “excess” (see schedule for details)
- Any loss or damage while your car is being used for a purpose which is not allowed by the current certificate of insurance (see General Exclusions)

Section 1-12

- Loss or damage arising from theft while the ignition keys of your car have been left in or on your car (see Section 1a & 1b)
- Loss of use, reduction in value, wear and tear, or mechanical, electrical or computer breakdowns, failures or breakages (see Section 1a & 1b)
- Loss of value following a repair (see Section 1a & 1b)
- Your car being seized or destroyed by, or on behalf of, any government or public authority (see Section 1a & 1b)
- The wrong fuel being used (see section 1a & 1b)
- Any amount over £20 million for damage to other people's property (see Section 2)
- A courtesy car if your vehicle is stolen and not recovered or deemed a write off (see section 1a & 1b)
- Driving other cars does not cover loss of or damage to the private motor car you are driving at that time (see Section 3)
- Driving other cars does not give cover for the release of any vehicle which has been seized by, or on behalf of, any government or public authority (see Section 3)
- Windscreen cover limit is reduced if you do not use the Swinton Accident and Claims Service (see section 4)
- Loss or damage to personal belongings or child car seat unless a claim is being made under Section 1 (see Sections 5 and 9)

Section 13

- Cover for more than two claims arising from a similar fault during your period of cover
- Roadside Breakdown cover for a breakdown at or within a quarter of a mile of your home
- Roadside Breakdown cover for travel outside of the UK
- UK Breakdown cover for any breakdown occurring outside of the UK

- UK Breakdown cover for any breakdown occurring at or within a quarter of a mile of your home
- UK & Home Breakdown cover for travel outside of the UK
- Transport to a local garage under UK, Home & European Breakdown cover is limited to the vehicle, the driver and up to six passengers only
- Cover for delivery of replacement costs under UK, Home & European Breakdown cover does not cover the costs of the parts themselves
- Cover for repatriation of the driver, the passengers and your vehicle under UK, Home & European Breakdown cover is limited to the costs of reasonable transportation
- A medical certificate must be produced before an emergency driver is provided under UK, Home & European Breakdown cover
- The additional costs of repatriating your vehicle to the UK under UK, Home & European Breakdown cover if the costs of doing so would be greater than the market value of your vehicle in the UK after the breakdown

Section 14

- Any legal expenses if there is no reasonable chance of success of recovering uninsured losses in legal proceedings
- Any legal expenses if the legal proceedings have been commenced without the insurer's permission
- Any legal expenses or other costs incurred prior to the insurer accepting the claim
- If your vehicle is being used as a taxi, mini cab or for hire and reward or otherwise other than in accordance with your policy
- If the third party is not identifiable and traceable and the solicitor acting does not deem the third party responsible for the accident
- Guaranteed excess refund cover where the accident did not occur in Great Britain, Northern Ireland, Isle of Man and the Channel Islands

- Any accidents where you or an authorised driver are being prosecuted for driving whilst under the influence of alcohol or non-prescribed drugs

How do I cancel my policy?

If you wish to cancel your policy please give Swinton Insurance a call.

If you cancel the policy in the first 14 days (Reflection Period)

If you want to cancel the policy within 14 days of buying it or receiving your documents (whichever happens later) let Swinton Insurance know, we will refund the premium for the exact number of days left on the policy unless you have made a claim in the current period of insurance which has left your car a total loss and we have been unable to recover our costs from an identifiable third party deemed to be responsible, in which case we will not refund any premiums.

This 14 day period also applies if you add Section 14 – Breakdown Cover during the period of insurance.

We also will do this if you cancel your policy within 14 days of the renewal date.

If you cancel the policy at any other time

You may cancel the policy at any other time by letting Swinton Insurance know. If no claim has been made or is anticipated in the current period of insurance, we will refund the premium for the exact number of days left on your policy. If you have made a claim in the current period of insurance and we have been unable to recover our costs from an identifiable third party deemed to be responsible, we will not refund any premium.

If we cancel your policy for any reason set out in "Cancelling Your Policy", we will refund the premium for the exact number of days left on the policy. If you have made a claim in the period of insurance and we have been unable to recover our costs from an identifiable third party deemed to be responsible, we will not refund any part of your premium.

We also may cancel your policy where you commit or attempt to commit fraud or have committed fraud under another insurance policy. If we cancel your policy on the grounds of fraud, we may cancel immediately and we may keep any premium you have paid. Please see the Fraud condition on page 44 of the policy wording for details.
